

Volunteers' Week Competition Entry Form

To celebrate Volunteers' Week Volunteer Essex are inviting volunteers countywide to tell their volunteering story. Three winners will have their story featured on the Volunteer Essex website during Volunteers' Week 2017 (1st to 7th June). In addition the author of each winning story will receive a Mark and Spencer's Gift Voucher to the value of £20.

To enter the competition please complete your details and add your volunteering story in approximately 500 words. Your article could be about how you came to volunteering, how it has affected you, what you enjoy about it etc. It's up to you!

Your entry should include at least one photo (preferably as a jpg. and in landscape format). Before supplying photographs for use on our website please ensure that you have received permission from anyone else that features in the photograph.

Closing date for entries: Wednesday 24th May 2017

Your Name (your full name will not be published on the website):
Name of Organisation you volunteer for:
Your volunteering role:
Your Email Address:
Contact Telephone Number:

Print your story here (approx. 500 words):

I give permission for story I have submitted to be published on the Volunteer Essex website

Yes No

If you are not a winner would you be willing to let us publish your story on the Volunteer Essex website at a later date?

Yes No

I confirm that those appearing in the attached photograph(s) have given their consent to publication on the Volunteer Essex website.

Yes No

Signed:

Title:

Date:

Return completed forms to volunteering@maldoncvcs.org.uk or to your local Volunteer Centre. Find details of your local Volunteer Centre on the Volunteer Essex website www.volunteersessex.org

Volunteer Essex will not use submitted articles for any purpose other than publication to the Volunteer Essex website.

Volunteer Essex reserves the right to edit submitted articles and does not guarantee publication.